DETECTIVE TAKES RACETRACK TOUT

Detective Burk gathered in another Race track tout at the Fair grounds yesterday when John Parish, a youth of 19 was taken in the drag net.

The fellow was one of the usual touting personages, and had bothered several men about to bet with offers of expert advice. He attracted the attention of the detective, and after repeated warnings, was taken to jail.

A charge of vagrancy was preferred, and $25 bail asked. The money was not forthcoming and Parish went to bed in a cell.

The police have announced that they will put a stop to "touting" at the Fair grounds.

OFFICERS ARREST YOUTHFUL TRAMPS

Four youthful tramps, were taken to the city jail last night, on complaint of residents in the neighborhood of the D. & R. bridge over the Weber river, were locked up, and will be arraigned in police court today.

The men were Charles Walker, aged 19; A. Smith 19; Frank Dicks, 19, and Fritz Kiesch, all of the migratory sort and considered a bad set by the police department.

The quartette had established themselves in a canvas tent, built from boughs and strips of canvas near the head in the river, and lived by raiding neighboring chicken coops, and vegetable patches.

WESTERN PACIFIC MEET S. P. RATE

The Western Pacific railroad company, the new Gould coast line with Eastern terminus at Salt Lake city has met the reduction in passenger rates made by the Southern Pacific company a week ago.

The Western Pacific railroad will collect but $23.58 as against $27.50 for a first class ticket from Salt Lake to San Francisco, compared with the recent reduction of the Southern Pacific company from $30.00 to $23.58, between Ogden and San Francisco.

The announcement of the reduction made by the Western Pacific is the second of its kind within the last few weeks. Substantial reductions were made on freight tariffs between Oroville, Sacramento and San Francisco by the new transcontinental line, effective October 25th.

Both the Southern Pacific and the Northern Electric in California have met reductions on passenger and freight rates.

Talk of a rate war between the Harriman line and the new road, which has been current for some time, past is scoffed at by railroad officials, and the announcement of the cut by the Western Pacific, would tend to banish such rumor.

CONFERENCE SPECIAL.

October 8th and 9th the Denver & Rio Grande will operate a fast conference special train between Ogden and Salt Lake, leaving Ogden 8 a. m.

DRUNKEN MAN CAUSES SCARE

An urgent call for assistance from the police station was telephoned early this morning from a woman residing on Wall avenue, who declared that she had heard screams on Stevens avenue near Wall avenue, and suspected that a holdup was being pulled off, or that some one was being assaulted, perhaps murdered.

The patrol wagon was hurried to the scene with Officers Rich Pincock and Marlin, prepared for a desperate battle.

When Stevens avenue was reached, it was found that the uproar was nothing more than the yell of an intoxicated man who had lost control of his team.
